Professional Summary

Having served as an AI-Trainer in Psychology at soulAI and subsequently transitioning to freelancing work on Remotasks as an English Language Tasker & Reviewer, I have accumulated diverse experiences in education and professional endeavors. Alongside achieving commendable ratings and dedicating significant hours to refining skills at soulAI, I have also contributed to various projects on Remotasks, focusing on training in subjects such as security aspects and general importance. My educational background includes successful clearances of India's National UGC NET, GATE, and HTET PGT in Psychology, complemented by Master's degrees in both Psychology and Physics. With instructional proficiency spanning grades 6 to 12, particularly in psychology and physics, I have employed digital tools effectively during my freelance work for Trivium Education Services, showcasing a dynamic and passion-infused approach to education. Furthermore, my exemplary English written and spoken skills have consistently facilitated clear and effective communication across diverse contexts, enhancing my contributions in various roles.
